

March 2016

NOW IN DALLAS

agenda

MARCH

By CarleeAnn Allen

ACTOR APPROVAL
Owen Wilson's father, Robert Wilson, was honored at last year's Aging Mind Foundation Gala.

3/4-3/12

Manon

Enjoy a night out filled with music and romance. Jules Massenet's famous opera Manon is a timeless story of young love, temptation and sacrifice in 18th century France, starring internationally acclaimed opera singers Ailyn Pérez and Stephen Costello. 7:30PM. Tickets from $19. Winspear Opera House, Dallas Arts District, dallasopera.org

3/7

Quatuor Ébène

World-renowned French string quartet Quatuor Ébène will make a stop in Dallas during its world tour this spring. They will perform classics such as Joseph

7:30PM. Tickets $40. Caruth Auditorium, Owen Arts Center, Southern Methodist University, dallaschambermusic.org

3/11-3/13

AGING MIND FOUNDATION GALA

The second annual gala will be celebrating the life and career of longtime Dallas Morning News columnist Robert E. Miller while raising awareness for the Aging Mind Foundation and its mission to conduct research, and treat and advocate for those who are aging. Internationally acclaimed singer James Valenti will provide the entertainment and WFAA's Ron Corning will be the tribute host for the event. 7PM. Tables from $6,000. The Joule hotel, agingmindfoundation.org meticulous dance technique in four performances at the Eismann Center. Times vary. Tickets from $20. Charles W. Eisemann Center for Performing Arts and

Charity Gala And Silent Auction

Join the Dallas Cotillion Club for Bluebonnets and Bourbon, a Night in Old Texas! Proceeds from the event and

3/5

Texas Emerald Ball

With a reputation for being one of the most glamorous—and green—events of the season, the American Ireland Fund will host its annual Texas Emerald Ball with Lt. Gov. Dan Patrick serving as honorary chair. The ball is dedicated to helping Ireland by providing access to education, promoting Irish culture and helping disadvantaged youth. 6:30PM. Tickets from $300. Fairmont Dallas, Dallas Arts District, theirlandfunds.org pieces such as Joseph Haydn's "Emperor" String Quartet in C major and "Hob III:32," and Ludwig van Beethoven's String Quartet in A minor "Op. 132" at Southern Methodist University.

Cinderella: A Magical Encounter

Enjoy a day out and see how the Texas Ballet Theater brings classic fairy tale Cinderella to life through elaborate costumes and

Corporate Presentations, Richardson, eisemanncenter.com

3/12

The Dallas Cotillion Club's 72nd Annual silent auction will support Jonathan's Place, an emergency shelter for abused and neglected children. 6PM. Tickets from $125. United States Post Office and Court

ANTI WORLD TOUR

Grammy Award-winning artist Rihanna's Anti World Tour—her first tour since 2013 and one of the most anticipated concert tours of the year—will come to Dallas in support of the crooner's long-awaited eighth studio album, Anti. 7:30PM. VIP tickets from $1,100. American Airlines Center, Victory Park, americansairlinescenter.com

REUNITED WITH RIRI
Discovered by Jay Z,
Rihanna makes her way to Big D for the first time in three years this month.