The Aging Mind Foundation celebrated its third annual fundraiser in honor of Kristin and George Kline at The Joule hotel.

THE PARTY For its third annual fundraising gala, the Aging Mind Foundation honored Kristin and George Kline—George, a noted Dallas-based producer, currently lives in a memory care facility where all of his daily needs are handled. The evening, sponsored by Headington Companies, The Joule and Forty Five Ten, raised $545,100, making the total more than $1.2 million raised over three years in support of critical issues unique to the aging mind, including research, treatment, education and advocacy. THE GUESTS 2017 event chair Laree Hulshoff was joined by 240 guests, including honorary chairs Greg and Carolyn Creed, underwriting chairs Greg Patterson and Joyce Goss, and entertainment chair Julie Tregoning. THE HIGHLIGHTS Guests enjoyed a dinner with entertainment by award-winning actress and singer Denise Lee and Grammy-nominated composer, songwriter and musician Joslin Dsouza, bid on luxury items in an auction led by Mike Sadler of Heritage Auctions and concluded the evening with dancing and desserts on The Joule's rooftop terrace. -Nadia Dabbakeh
